1 GIVN John
SURN WHITE
Mrs Ann S White, 3013 River Oaks Dr, Monroe, LA 71201 cl aims tobe a descendant of John White (1744-1824) who lived in Randolph Co,NCbe fore moving to Clarke Co, Al by 1812. His proven children (accordingtoher) ar e: John Jr, Josiah, Elizabeth W York, Marey W Frazer, and byhissecond wife, R ebekah Dorsett: Dorsey, Isaac, Andrew, and Henry. (1992,Vol1213, pg 16 of Fami ly Puzzlers Genealogical Quarterly)
John White came to Clarke Co, Al from NC b efore 1812. He had alargefamily of sons and daughters. His descendants are cha racterized by industry andenergyand are still residing in Clarke County and in the easternpart ofMississippi; with 3 of the Mississippi descendants being pro minentBaptist ministers. (---A Glance into the GreatSouth-East, or ClarkeCo, Al and It's Surroundings from 1540-1877by Rev T.H Ball, A.M; pg525.)
Per Bennie White, at least one White researcher claims John, sonofMoses, was born ca 1719 in Wales and died abt 1824, at the ageof 105.This is the John who married Kesia h. Bennie does notbelieve thesecond marriage to Rebecca Dorsett could be possi ble as themarriageshows 4 childrem, and Kesiah (the first wife) died in1822 (ac cordingto deed records) and John died in 1824. Unless inthe case of twins ortr iplets, it would be unlikely they had four childrenwithin 2 years.(It is possib le one or two of the children werechildren of Kesiahinstead of Rebecca. ---Bria na S. Felch)
Bennie White has the children of John and Keziah as: RobertWhite (whom Jane and Sarah Dickson), John (who m Ann Welborn),Josiah (who mBarbary Ki vett), David (who m Jemima Williams),James, Mary, Joab,Elizabeth (who m Jabez York).
Bennie has this John as the son of Moses and Isabella CochranWhited/aft 1822 in Wilcox Co, AL and marrying Keziah as thefather of ourRobert White.

History of the Whites

Go to descendants of Robert White.

Robert White was born about 1760 in NC. His parents were John and Kesiah White. Robert White was living in Marengo Co., AL by 1822 as indicated by a deed from his parents that were living in Wilcox Co., AL. The first wife of Robert White may have been Charlotte Sanders but is not proven. He may have also married Jane Dixon. There were at least five children that came with Robert to Alabama: Sarah; Henry C. White; Hiram; Lucy White; and Griffin White.

At the age of 68 Robert decided that he wanted to marry a young girl by the name of Sarah Dickson. Sarah was the daughter of Robert Dickson and Mary Giles. Sarah was only about eighteen years old at the time and due to the great difference in their ages her father was reluctant to let her marry Robert White. To persuade the father to let him marry her, Robert White promised to give Sarah a slave. This was sufficient to satisfy the father and Robert and Sarah were married on 28 Oct 1828. This displeased the older children of Robert White and they refused to attend the wedding. Robert and Sarah White had two sons, Thomas Dickson White, born 1830 and William Jasper White, born 1833. It was about this time that Sarah decided to leave Robert and move back home with the two boys. Robert White died in 1837. Henry C. White was the executor of his father's estate and through some devious trickery, he managed to prevent Sarah from recovering the slave that had been promised to her in the marriage contract. Sarah later married David Tindall.

Henry C. White was married first to Sarah Anderson in 1818 in Clarke Co., AL. They had four children: Sarah White, born ca 1820 and married Joseph Hare; Martha White, born ca 1823; Milberry White, born ca 1827 and married Jonathan Anderson; and Elizabeth White, born ca 1828. Henry C. White married second to Sarah Loftin on 25 March 1829. Sarah Loftin was the daughter of John Loftin and Sarah Giles. The children of Henry and Sarah (Loftin) White were: Henry A. J. White, born 1834 and married Mariah E. Pritchett; Pricilla White, born ca 1837; and Martha A. White, born ca 1839 and married to James R. Jackson. Henry C. White married third to Eveline L. Jackson in 1852. Their daughter, Victoria Isabella, born 1863 married James Pritchett in Marengo Co., AL in 1875. James Pritchett was the son of Robert Pritchett and Francis Ann Day. Henry C. White died in Jan 1864 and is probably buried in Friendship Cemetery near Vineland. There is no marker for him but there is one there for Eveline White.

Sarah White, daughter of Robert White, was born ca 1795 in NC and married William Cranford 10 April 1812 in Jasper Co., GA. William Cranford died in 1837 in Marengo Co., AL. After William's death, Sarah and her children moved to Ouachita Co., AR.

Lucy White, daughter of Robert White, was born ca 1805 in NC and married Henry Bryan Hare in 1823. Their children were Mary A. Hare, born 1824 and married Archibald A. Autry; Dennis Calhoun Hare, born ca 1830; Henry Bryan Hare, born ca 1833. After Sarah's husband died in 1843, Sarah married Presley Odom and they moved to Ouachita Co., AR.

Thomas Dickson White, son of Robert White and Sarah Dickson, married Ellizabeth S. Mitcham in 1848. Thomas was killed in the Civil War in TN.

William Jasper White married Armanda Heneley in 1855.

David White was born ca 1780 and married Jemima Williams. David died in May 1852. Children of David and Jemima White:

1. Margaret White born ca 1798 and married to Joseph Dewitt.
2. John White, born 19 Jul 1799 NC. Married to Anna Loftin.
3. Malinda White, born ca 1804 and married to Elijah White
4. Nancy White, born ca 1806 and married to William Eccles(Echols).
5. Greenberry White, born ca 1809 and married to Martha Walker
6. James Wesley White, born 15 Apr 1811. Married Elizabeth E. Pierce.
7. Charlotte White, born ca 1815 and married to Henry White.
8. Mary White born ca 1819 and married to George Washington Null.

John and Kesiah White

John White was probably born Wales around 1719. There are some that believe that John White was the son of the Moses White whose will is dated March 16, 1735 in New Castle, Deleware. John probably lived in NC and SC before coming to Alabama. In 1809 passports to travel through the Creek Nation were issued to John and David White with their families from Barnwell District of South Carolina. He was living in Wilcox Co., AL in 1822 where he deeded one slave to his son Robert and one to his son, Joab. Robert was living in Marengo Co., AL and Joab was living in Clarke Co., AL. On the 1830 census of Wilcox Co., AL there is a male age 90/100 and a female age 80/90 living in the household of David White. It is likely that this is John and Kesiah White.

The known children of John and Kesiah White are:

Joab White Robert White James White David White John White, Jr.

First Families of Union Parish

The following names are some of the earliest known in Union Parish (pre-Civil War) of a particular surname. Please e-mail us your additions and corrections and names of the first settlers of a particular surname that you are aware of.

If you wish to add a name and/or volunteer to be the contact person for a particular name, please e-mail us and adopt one of the first families, if you are willing to field questions and volunteer information by e-mail to anyone who requests. Your e-mail number will be put by the surname of the first family as the contact person for that family.

ANTLEY--James Augustus Antley migrated with his family to Union Parish in the Autumn of 1850 from Clarke Co., AL. They originally settled in the Point area with branches eventually spreading out to other areas of the parish. Descendants of Jacob Antley, James' father, still reside in Union Parish today. Contact person: Debi Antley Murphy at Antley Genealogy Contact.

BAGWELL - Furney, Turney T., Warren, Robert, Wiley, Irvin, James C., Martin, and Warren Bagwell all applied for original tracts of land from the U. S. Government in the 1850s at Union Parish. Several Bagwell families of North Louisiana descend from these men. Bagwell Genealogy Contact.

BRASHER/BRASHIER

COLE

CROW - John (b. GA) and Leacy (Keen) Crow were married in 1834 in Georgia. They moved to Union Parish between 1846 and 1849. John Crow died 15 August 1862 during the Civil War Period. The old John Crow homeplace was about three miles south of Marion and is now referred to as the Carpenter place. In an old cemetery nearby are buried John Crow and his wife Leacy and at least one of their children, Jerusha. William Marion Crow became the head of the house after he returned from the Civil War. He was at Lee's surrender at Appamatox Courthouse, Virginia, on 9 April 1865. Submitted by SueLynn Sandifer email: suelynn@bayou.com

CULBERTSON - John Culbertson (b. 1791, Green Co., GA) and Barthena Heard (b. 1788, Wilkes County, GA) were married in 1811 in Morgan County, GA. They resided in GA, AL and Noxubee County, MS before arriving in Union Parish around 1840. John and Barthena, along with most of their children, are buried at the Culbertson Cemetery, which is on land formerly owned by John. Submitted by Steve Hughes - sdhughes@worldnet.att.net.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
It is with interest we submit this copy of the Roll of Company E, 19th Regiment, Louisiana Volunteers that was published in the Farmeville Gazette September, 1898. Many of the readers of this roll will find listed an ancestor who fought in the Civil War. We are grateful a copy of this has been given us.

Signed Edna Liggin

First a letter:

Shiloh, La.
August 17, 1898

Editor, Gazette: Enclosed herewith I beg to hand you a valuable paper. This company was inducted into Confederate service October 23, 1861, at Camp Monroe, La. by Capt. James G. Devereaux of the C.S.A. Many of your readers will be glad to have the opportunity of reading over this list of soldiers---which is the best I can do in memory, though I know it is incomplete and may have some errors in it. But this will serve for a basis upon which corrections may be made and a complete roll had All these men were true to Louisiana and her interest, bold and fierce in battle as was proven in thirteen regular engagements, aside from continuos skirmishing for many days, weeks and months

I am yours truly,

Thanks to Doris Hollifield who hired Brent Holcomb we finally know who the father of our George Sr was. He found an entry in the Council Journals he believed to be the father of George. Here is that entry:

Petitions for Land from the SC Council Journals,Vol III:1752-1753:
The petition of John Endeley humbly setting forth That the Petitioner took shipping for himself and Family at Rotterdam on Board the Snow Rowand, Capt. Alex'r Fran, Comm'r, who was then bound to this place and on the Encouragement given to foreign Protestants and has payed his freight to Mr. John McCall and is desirous of settling in this province, he has two children viz George about 15 years and Catherina about 8 years, prays to lay out 150 acres of land free of charges and that he may have his most gracious majestys Bounty. Cha's Town, the 1st day of Dec'r 1752. John Endeley. The prayer thereof was granted."

An item in the SC GAZETTE on October 3rd 1752 said the Snow ROWAND arrived yesterday from Rotterdam with near 300 GERMAN passengers. I received that from the SC Library.

Armed with this information I sent to SC Archives for several grants and plats. John's grant was on BULL SWAMP as Mr. Holcomb said and it adjoined one of Daniel SHULER. Our George's grant in 1787 was also on BULL SWAMP and adjoined land already owned by him, George King and David SHULER who was the son of Daniel SHULER.

I'm sending a more detailed email to those of you I correspond with. If you don't get one and would like more info on this just email me.

Decendants of Henry Patrick Antley who live in Texas did not stabilize with the spelling "Antley" as the other branches did by 1850. This branch of the family continue to use the spelling "Antilley."

This website only includes people who are an Antley, a spouse of an Antley or a child of an Antley. We also do not include the birthdate of a person born after 1900 if the person is still living.

Descendants of John Endeley who arrived in Charleston, SC aboard the Rowand on Oct. 2, 1752 with a son George, about 15, and a daughter Catherine, about 8. John petitioned the SC Council on Dec. 1, 1752 for land and received a land grant in Bull Swamp in 1755.

Hi Carol

Welcome aboard. As you will find we are all related. The Antley's in AL/MS/LA/ Antilley's of TX and the Antley's of SC were descended from George Antley/ Andoley/ Antaley of Orangeburgh District SC. I believe there are a few Antley's in the country who came in at scattered times who aren't connected with us but not many. The name wasn't spelled ANTLEY consistently until about 1850. Prior to that it was variations of the above and Antilley/ Antely etc.

David Antley was the grandson of George Antley Jr. who migrated from SC to GA after 1830. Then after 1840 he migrated to Dale Co AL. George can be found in the census records of 1850 in Dale Co.

Here is what I have in my files on your branch of the family. I have only verified what I could thru the census records. If you will look thru the postings you'll find some from Mike Holland. He is descended down the same branch as you are. He will probably be able to give yu more information.

I received the papers back from National Archives on George Andoley's service in the Revolutionary War. Here is what I got back:

The index card showing George Andoley, Thomson's South Carolina Regiment.
The second page was a typed index card which stated his name and that he appeared on a Pay Roll of Capt. Jacob Rumph's Company in Orangeburgh District, commanded by Col. Wm Russell Thomson. Roll dated April 19, 1783. Days on duty 60. Clark was the copyist.

Hi Carol

The origin of our family is still up for discussion. It's made more difficult in my opinion by the fact that it changed so much over a hundred year span. The first records that are found for the family in SC are under Andoley and Anderly. George's name was George Anderly on a payment for "attending Indians" and Andoley on the Cherokee War Pay Roster. It's Andoley in the Rev War records also.

Some believe we're from England but I'm leaning more to Germany. Not to say they were German as there were different Nationalities in Germany during the time they probably immigranted to America. On an indent paper from the SC Department of Archives George's name was spelled Jorge Andola. Also from what I've read Orangeburgh was settled by mostly Swiss/ German settlers.

In the mid 1800's the name stabilized with the current day spelling in SC, AL and LA. One of the brothers sons had migrated to TX and their name continued as Antilley as it was probably spelled when he left SC.

Hope this helps a bit.

Tell me when this page is updated

Even though I just KNEW Mary Gill was Jacob Antley's wife it still bothered me that the marriage was under JOAB.

Jacob's second wife, Mariah, filed for the bounty in 1858 from Union Parish, LA. She stated they were married in Clarke Co, when, where, by whom. And that he had served for SC in the War of 1812. But that wasn't the neatest thing. In there was an affidavit by Robert Hinton stating he knew Mariah and had known Jacob. He said that he knew that Jacob was dead because of letters the relatives got stating the news of his death. Also that they got a report on his death (which I wish he'd described!) from his widow and children when they removed to LA without him. I already knew that Jacob and Mariah remained in AL after most of the other relatives came to LA. Mr. Hinton also said he knew they were married as they had lived in the same neighborhood with Jacob and Mariah. There was also a Mr. R.B.Wallworth that stated the same, saying he had lived near them in Clarke Co, AL. I did find a Robert Waulwork near them in the 1850 Clarke Co census that Brenda sent to me.

BUT that wasn't all. There was a letter inside from Clarke Co AL. Undoubtably they had written from Union Parish requesting info on who Jacob served for. The letter was from James Gill, the brother of my ggg-grandmother I'm sure, dated 1859 stating it was known that Jacob served in the War of 1812 and who he thought he served for. He was wrong as to who that was, Mariah put another name and was rejected then refiled using this letter and was rejected again. You know that in the back of my mind it's always worried me some because the marriage records said Joab instead of Jacob for Mary Gill. Even though Jacob Antley lived by her brother in the 1850 census, this was the proof. They wrote to the brother of Mary who he married not long after the War of 1812 in Clarke Co, 1817!!

What this verified was that Mariah and the small children stayed in AL until after Jacob's death and then joined the rest of the family and friends in LA. Probably after she married and left that Byrd Skinner!

But I reread the deeds of gift from Elizabeth Till Gill (Uriah's wife) to her children. There is information here that I don't believe is in the database so I must not have sent you this stuff. One deeds that really raises my curiosity is to her daughter Margaret A Pearson. It's dated several years before the others. 1850 in Clarke Co AL Deed book F. She states what she's giving then says in the event of her marriage.... It implies she's no married so was Elizabeth Gill married to a Pearon first or was her daughter Margaret a widow lady? There is no info on a daughter Margaret of Uriah and Elizabeth that I see in the database.

It then skips to 1857 Deed Book G. And according to this the daughter Martha was first married to James M Bouler. In her deed it states:

...that I Elizabeth Gill of state and county aforesaid for and in consideration of the natural love and affection which I have and bear towards my daughter Martha E. Bouler wife of James W. Boulder of said county.....

Thomas F. Gill also has a Deed of Gift as does Laura M GILL. There is no mention of Rebecca unless we missed one. Also none of Caroline or Mary so it's possible we did miss some given at another time. All of these previous ones with the exception of Margaret were 1857.

Maybe Martha Gill Bouler died and he then married her sister Laura??

This is the line of D. Antley Murphy.

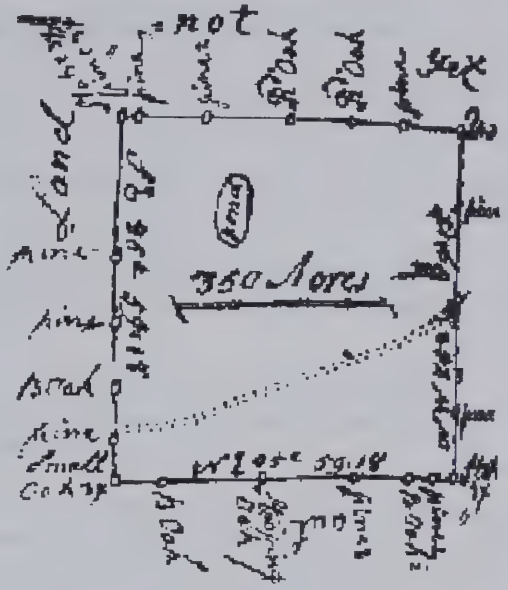
James Gill, Gill Ck., Richland Co., SC 1712-<1784 m. second? Hannah Goodwyn?. James is documented as from Virginia. A James Gill was baptized in VA who was the son of David Gill of Mattapony Neck. James Gill may also be from Chesterfield Co., VA, and there are ties to the Northumberland Co., VA Gills as well. James Gill removed from Virginia to Richland Co., SC on the Congaree River c1748.

My cousin, Paul Gill, (of Columbia) found the SC. land record (Council General Journal 1748-1749, page 120) which shows the land grant to James Gill with wife and five children from Virginia. "James Gill came with his family from Virginia - to settle in the Congrees (sic) - his wife and 5 children - 350 acres in the Congarees on the other side of the Santee River." If he was married at age 21 and had one child per year, then the latest birth year for him would be 1748 - (21+5) = <1722. Since deeds attest that eldest son Thomas Gill, born c1732, was not included in this accounting, James' birth year is pushed back to c<1711, in near perfect agreement with the 1712 baptismal found in Virginia records. The Congaree is a short stretch of river alongside present day Columbia, SC. Gill Creek in Columbia is named after James Gill.

James Gill had a plat made for this 350 acres on the north or east side of the Santee otherwise known as the Congaree River opposite Saxe-Gotha Township which was requested through the Surveyor General on 3 Feb. 1748 and surveyed 3 Feb. 1749 (South Carolina Colonial Plats Vol. 4 p499). This plat shows the pond named as "Richmond Pond" when Thomas Gill sold part of this land, as well as a road or path cutting diagonally across it. Vacant land surrounded all sides. The request shows that James Gill was in the area some time before 3 February 1748. Probably he removed to South Carolina shortly before this time. He received a land grant (Index I) for this 350 acres on the Congaree River in Craven Co. 1 Jan. 1750. James Gill signed his name to these records, he was literate.



James Gill 1749 Plat

From the estimated birth ranges of children, James Gill probably was married more than once. My guess is that Valentine and Richard were sons of Hannah Goodwyn Gill, while Thomas and John, and perhaps James, were sons of an earlier wife. There is no evidence that James is a son. This scenario neatly explains why Hannah Gill seemingly ignored John Gill of Barnwell in preference to sons of Valentine Gill.

It is documented that James Gill of Gill Creek is the father of Thomas Gill of the Congarees (born c<1731-33 -> c1776), because Thomas so states in a Charleston deed: "to Benjamin Everett for 175 acres of land, said land being a part of the original grant to my father, James Gill, and now that James Gill, my late and honored father has died, and according to law, I, Thomas Gill, being the eldest son and heir of the said James Gill now deceased, am enabled to make a title to this said land". The implication of the wording is that there were other male children and that Thomas was the eldest. The 1712 baptismal record may be taken to imply that Thomas was probably born when James was 18, although Thomas could have been several years old at his baptismal.

James Gill had 350 acres of land surveyed 3 Feb. 1749 on (to be so later called - after him) Gill Creek on the east side of the Congaree River opposite Saxe-Gotha. This is listed as a land grant in Index I in Craven County granted 20 October 1750. This land is in modern day Richland County, and James Gill is the first Gill to appear in the County of Richland and for whom Gill Creek was named. The total amount of land is indicative of James Gill's family size: a wife and five children at this time (1749). The "Virginia" statement in the land record suggests that his wife and children were all from Virginia. His very latest birth year may be estimated as <{1749 - (21 + 5 + 1)} <1722, assuming he was 21 when he married, and that his wife had one child per year. From the estimated birth year of his known eldest son, Thomas Gill (born c<1731-33 died c1784-6), James' birth year may be estimated as c<1710 to 1713 if James was 21 when Thomas was born. The 1712 baptismal record indicates that he was c37 when he removed to SC, and c20 when Thomas was born. Clearly he was not a young man when he moved to South Carolina, as he had five children apparently not including Thomas.

In Langley's Deed Abstracts, is listed a deed of 19 & 20 March 1749, which mentions James Gill, as "J.P.", apparently implying that James Gill was serving as a "Justice of the Peace." Book LL p54. James has a 350a plat 15 Dec. 1749 on the Santee River, which begins at the junction of the Congaree and Wateree Rivers, & continues towards Georgetown.

James Gill has a land grant dated 1 June 1750 Vol. 4 p232.

From later deeds it is inferred that James' wife was Hannah. Legal records imply that she was Hannah Goodwyn, perhaps a daughter of Uriah Goodwyn, or William Goodwyn, who lived adjacent to James Gill. Since the Mississippi branch, which I have assigned to John Gill born c1733, included a child named Uriah, this connection is strengthened, and suggests that Hannah Goodwyn may have been his only wife. The two families appear in legal records for many years, perhaps they migrated from Virginia together. Paul Gill has been told that the Goodwyns might have been from Dinwiddie County, VA. A lawyer for the Gills in Northumbria was a Goodwyn, and there was another Goodwyn reference in the records there, so it is possible that James Gill met Hannah Goodwyn through them. The manner in which Hannah Gill interacted with Valentine Gill's children and not those of John Gill, suggests that Hannah Gill was James Gill's second wife, and the mother only of Valentine and Richard, and perhaps James (Jr.). These suggestions conflict.

A 1751 record of James Gill is found in the Judgement Roll 30D:12A (SCDAH). The judgement roll record of 1751, Box 30D No. 12A is a legal action by Thomas Corker against James Gill, Case 121.10.0 filed 19 April 1751 in which "We find for the Plaintiff £71 16S & 5 Curey with Cost of Suite." This set of records contains a clerk copy of a promissory note signed by James Gill. "I promise to pay to Thos. Corker or his order? three months after Date this line of £60 No.S for Value received this 4th day of February 1751? (date on court copy is illegible. (s) James Gill.

A 1752 record of James Gill is found in the Judgement Roll 33A:40A (SCDAH) which is of a legal proceeding by the two executors of the estate of Thomas White, deceased, against James Gill as executor of the estate of Gilbert Fawks, deceased.

James Gill is listed (Salley's History of Orangeburgh, page 231) in the Charleston Gazette 8 Jan. 1754 by Patrick Brown & Thomas Corker Re. Elizabeth Mercier as executor of the Estate of George Haig (Saxe-Gotha). George Haig was a neighbor, and Elizabeth Mercier may have been his daughter. 12 Feb. 1771 James Gill was mentioned on a plat of Benjamin Farrar Vol. 15 p80. 17 Apr. 1771 Memorial of Benjamin Farar Vol. 10 p409. 27 May 1772 plat of Theodore Gourdine Vol 9 p466. 8 Sept. 1772 Memorial of Theodore Gourdine Vol. 11 p399. 5 May 1775 Memorial of David Boyd Vol. 13 p470.

Book K-4 page 22 shows a lease and release dated 9 & 10 August 1773 in which John Gill and John Jackson sell land to Howell Hay, witnessed by James hisXmark Gill, Richard Snelling, and James Murphey. This is a son named James Gill, and not old James Gill, since old James Gill is known to have signed his name in early records, and James, Sr., was probably dead by 1768.

James Gill may have died before 1768. In 1784 Thomas Gill sold one half of James Gill's 350 acre land to Benjamin Everitt (Charleston Deed Book T5 Page 169). Contained within this transaction is a land plat dated 1768 "pursuant to the directions of Thomas and John Gill" that cuts off one half of the land. If this date is correct, and not a transcription error (the plat appears to be an original), then it appears that James Gill either was dead or incapacitated by this date. Regardless of the date, this plat documents John Gill born c1733 as a son of James, by virtue of his equal status with Thomas Gill on the land plat. It is not clear why James, Jr. is not mentioned, but been that Thomas and John were twins, and jointly inherited by primogeniture. Their birth years always strangely converged as more records were accumulated.

John Hopkins had an original grant to 50 acres of land "on the dreans of Jackson's Creek or Gill Creek" dated 12 Jan. 1769, purchased by James Gill (details unknown) sold by Valentine Gill as heir to James Gill on 15 March 1799? Charleston Deed Book C.

Land of James Gill was mentioned in the will of Robert Goodwyn signed on 8 October 1777, proved 16 April 1786 in Richland (Camden) - "To my son, Howell Goodwyn I leave the lands I late bought of James Gill and also my grist mill on Mill Creek.

Miscellaneous Records Book RR p428 for £1000 current money of the province of South Carolina in hand paid by Robert Goodwyn, Esq., of Camden District, I do sell a negro wench slave named Dafney and her three negro children named Peg, Judy, and Catriner. Date 5 July 1777, signed Hannah her mark Gill. Witnessed by William Goodwyn and Henry Bowers. This is the same mark made by the Hannah Gill in Barnwell. This is probably the wife of James, as it involves a Goodwyn. This is a lot of money, and means that Hannah should be traceable through her wealth. This may be a clue pointing to Hannah who deeds articles to John Gill, son of John and Martha Gill, in Barnwell. Mrs. Hicks points out that this 1777 deed makes her appear a widow, since she mentions no husband. The fact that Hannah executed this transaction herself, with no mention of her husband, indicates that James Gill was dead by this date, consistent with the 1768 land plat. Mrs. Hicks comments that this indicates that she was a widow unless she was acting as a femme sole trader.

There are two Hannah Gills in the 1790 census. Andrea asserts that the older was the wife of James Gill of Gill Creek (1712 - <1784), and the younger the wife of his son, Thomas Gill of the Congarees. It is assumed that James' widow, Hannah, is the Hannah with slaves in 1790 (both are close together). The Hannah Gill present in 1800 is presumably the widow of old James, has one slave with her, probably a house servant. Hannah Gill in the 1790 census is listed with 1 male under 16, 2 males over 16, 2 females, and two slaves. Immediately adjacent to Hannah Gill in the 1800 census are four families of "free coloreds": James Brown, John Busby, Free Andrew(!), and Cornelius Rouse (Rowser?, see Charleston records). These could not be identified in the 1790 census, or 1810. Did Hannah free these after her husband, James, died, or if this is Thomas' wife, after she inherited them from James' widow, Hannah? Grandson, John Gill of Orangeburgh is four families away in the census (very close). Is there an extant document of this manumission?

Four documented sons:

1. Thomas Gill "of the Congarees, SC" born c1732 (range 1731-1744)- died (1784-6) m. Hannah. Born VA. (supposedly), first born son of James Gill (his brother, John Gill, may have been his twin). One documented son, John Gill. Thomas was in the area, and may have been the father of the Laurens Co. Gill Loyalists.

2. John Gill born c1733

3. James Gill (NOT DOCUMENTED - the other four are documented)

4. Valentine Gill (removed to AllendaleCo.)

5. Richard Gill (removed to Allendale Co., then to Clarke Co., AL).

Richard $^{his}X_{mark}$ Gill, "Senior" (Clarke Co., AL records), a documented son of James Gill, probable fifth born, and definitely the youngest,son , born <c1767-70 died 19 May 1845 in Clarke County, Alabama (X is his mark). {born <c1767 (if 21 when had first of 2 children in 1790 census, 1790-21- 2=1767. This age estimate is also consistent with his census ages.)}. A Barnwell deed states that Richard was a brother to Valentine, and therefore Richard Gill is a son of James Gill, since Valentine is documented as a son in a deed (see Valentine). Richard Gill was in Lancaster County, SC (just above Columbia) in 1790 with wife and 2 sons under 16 (born 1774-1790), no slaves. The adjoining census families were: Shadrick Sims, Frances Nelson, John Nixon, Peter Thompson, John Peach, Joseph Collins, Wm. McGill, John Gregory, widow Miller, Isaac Dubos, and David Ballard. Sims and Miller are names associated with our Gills in Allendale.

Richard Gill was in Barnwell Co., SC (the area in which he resided is in what is now Allendale Co., SC) in the 1800 census, 16-26 years of age (born 1774-1784) (with 2 sons under 10 (born 1790-1800, note these would not appear to be the same two sons as in the 1790 census, but I am not sure I believe that! I conjecture that these two sons were born in 1790 +/- one year.), 3 daughters under 10 (born 1790-1800), wife 16-26 years of age (born 1774-1784), and one slave, who was not present in the 1790 census. As usual, the census records are not consistent. Immediate neighbors in the 1800 census are: Henry Harrison, Sarah Bast, Parker Savage, Stephen Phillips, Thomas Riley, Thomas Edenfield, James Henderson, Arthur Genkins (his daughter was "associated," shall we say, with John Gill), Valentine Gill (Richard's brother), and Jesse Hall. Richard Gill does not appear in the SC census thereafter. Richard removed to Clarke County, Alabama. 9 January 1809 Richard Gill & Daniel Jackson, (Richard is a common Jackson name) along with James Myrick and Henry Myrick, sent a letter signed by, among others, Tarleton Brown, Col., O.D.A. Allen, Clerk of Barnwell District, and James Duncan Park, Master of Barnwell Court House, for a passport through the Creek Nation (i.e. they migrated west, Richard Gill to Clarke County, Alabama. See record below.). 11 March 1983 in The Low Country Courier, Mrs. Virginia W. Gill, 41 Ridgeview Dr., Chickasaw, AL 36611, ran a query for information on Richard Gill bc1770 SC, left Jan. 1809 for Mississippi Territory, AL, now Clarke Co., AL. Sold his land to Valentine Gill. Died in Alabama 19 May 1845.

Richard Gill was in Clarke Co., AL for the 1816 census when it was part of Mississippi Territory. Most of the Clarke County records of Richard Gill and his family have been located by, and thanks to, Jack Buckalew.

1835. Richard Gill married Elizabeth Lewis 27 day of July 1835 in Clarke Co AL (Clarke Co. Marriages, Book B, p11) (courtesy C. Griffin). Was this Richard Gill, Senior, or a son?

Richard Gill is present in Clarke County, AL in the 1840 census at age 70-80 (born 1760-1770) with only three slaves: male 24-35, female 10-24, female 36-55. Nearby are the families of Price, Myrick, and Riley, all found in the Allendale Co., SC area.

In other words, Richard Gill lost a court case to Savage, perhaps a debt or mortgage, and had his land sold and public auction on the court house steps.

We have a statement that Richard Gill died in Clarke County, AL on 19 May 1845, but I am unaware of proof of this yet. Does anyone have a Bible record that contains this date? There appears to be nothing left to probate, so there may be no court record of his death.

Children of Richard Gill (son born before 1774 in the 1790 census, son born before 1774 in the 1790 census, son born 1774-1784 in the 1800 census, son born 1774-1784 in the 1800 census) I interpret the 1790 and 1800 census records to imply that Richard had two sons born in 1774. Note that to the best of my knowledge only one of these children is documented as a son and daughter or Richard Gill, Rebecca. Does anyone have a family Bible, or other record, showing that they were children? All documentation on these children is welcomed, as well as oral tradition, or other family tradition.

(1) Richard? Gill born 1774-1790. Two sons are shown in the 1790 census, but there is no evidence that more than one survived. Did this child die young, after the 1790 census, or did he remain in SC?? Does anyone have clues? Was this another Richard Gill? Please send them. I have placed this child solely on the basis of two records: census adn the 1863 marriage record that seems to fit no place else. Is this record of Richard Gill, Senior, son of James Gill, or was this a son: 1835. Richard Gill married Elizabeth Lewis 27 day of July 1835 in Clarke Co AL (Clarke Co. Marriages, Book B, p11) (courtesy C. Griffin) Is this record of this man, his son, or somebody else: 1863. Richard Gill Senr. marriage license to marry Susannah Lewis, license issued 24 Jan. 1863 (Clarke Co., AL Marriage Book B p78)(Courtesy C. Griffin) Since both wives are of the Lewis family, I assume this Richard Gill married a sister of his first wife. It is unlikely that he had a son who married someone of the same maiden name as his mother, although it is possible.

(2) James J. Gill born 1790-2 (in 1790 census) died 1839 married 1 March 1817 Cathrena Till (Clarke Co. Marriage Records Book A page 48). This information provided by, thanks to, and is the line of E. Whitten.

(3) Mary Gill born c1800 married Joab (Jacob) Antley (Antiley) in 1817. She died about 1837 and Joab (Jacob) Antley married 2nd Mariah White. Jacob Antley died in Clarke Co AL in July of 1854 . Jacob's second wife, Mariah White Antley then followed James Antley to Union Parish, Louisiana after 1850. There is no concrete record of the youngest daughters of Jacob and Mary Gill Antley, Martha and Melissa, in LA. The 1860 Union Parish census has many errors and omissions. The Antley households have children of all ages listed who don't show up before or after this census. Some families are even listed twice with different info in each entry. (1860, 1870 & 1880 Union Parish, La census/1880 Lincoln Parish, LA census courtesy of D. Antley Murphy, via Brenda Nichols). Mariah White Antley's pension application for Jacob Antley's service in the War of 1812 states that he died in 1854 in Clarke Co AL. James Augustus Antley stated on his pension for the Civil War that he came to LA in the autumn of 1850. Everything previously found, including land in Clarke Co and Union Parish, La, census records for the places of birth of children, the death date of Jacob and James being in the 1850 Clarke Co census, pointed to them migrating about 1856 (as opposed to the 1850 statement in the pension application). This is the line of D. Antley Murphy.

1. Elizabeth Antley b. 1818, married William White 1833 in Clarke Co., AL
2. James Antley b. 1823, married 1st Mary Ann Buckaloo in 1843 in Clarke Co., AL, married 2nd Susan Buckaloo in 1846 in Clarke Co., AL, moved to Union Parish, Louisiana after 1850. . His father, Jacob Antley, died in Clarke Co., AL, in July of 1854 . His stepmother, Mariah White Antley then followed him to Louisiana. There is no concrete record of the youngest daughters of Jacob and Mary Gill Antley, Martha and Melissa, in LA. The 1860 Union Parish census has many errors and omissions. The Antley households have children of all ages listed who don't show up before or after this census. Some families are even listed twice with different info in each entry. Everything I (DAM) had previously found including land in Clarke Co and Union Parish, La, census records for the places of birth of children, the death date of Jacob and James being in the 1850 Clarke Co census pointed to them migrating about 1856.

2. Mary Beall minor in 1841, born 1820-41

(5) Kelly Gill born 1790-1800 "Kelly" (I've seen it "Holly", "Helly", and "Hellen") Gill, died before 1850, married 1816 George Walwork b. 1785 England (1850 Clarke Co., AL Census and Clarke Co., AL Marriage Records Volume A) (courtesy B. Nichols)

1. Mary Walwork b. 1819 still at home in 1850 Clarke Co., AL Census; deaf and dumb. married George Wallwork
2. Richard Walwork m. Susannah Buckaloo in 1843 in Clarke CO., AL
3. Martha Walwork m. Thomas A. Coleman in 1841
4. Robert Walwork b. 1829
5. William Walwork m. Rebecca Ann Gill 1848 in Clarke Co., AL
6. Ellen Walwork b. 1834; still at home in 1850

(6) Uriah Gill born 1805 in South Carolina was alive in Clarke Co., AL in 1880 (census, from B. Nichols). Uriah was the son of a Richard Gill, fits this one perfectly, and cannot be the son of Valentine's son, Richard (the ages are inconsistent). His children were born in Lowndes Co., Alabama according to the 1860 Clarke Co., AL Census. He was married to Elizabeth Till b. 1806 SC (marriage info from Barbara Till Prestridge) (Is he "buried in Branton Cemetery on Childton Road"?). 1850 census, Clarke Co., AL, page 207 roll 3, family #42, 45 farmer, born SC, cannot read or write. Wife, Elizabeth, 44, born 1806 in SC. (from Coley Scott & B. Nichols).

1. Rebecca Ann Gill born 12 March 1834 in Lowndes County, GA died 7 June 1897 in Clarke County, AL, buried in Midway Cemetery, Clarke County, AL. Rebecca married William J. Walwork (also stated as Walworth).
    1. George Walworth, son of Rebecca
    2. Ann Gill Walworth.
2. Caroline Gill born 1835 in AL married a Martin, perhaps deceased by 1875.
3. Martha Gill born 1837 in AL, not mentioned by her mother in the 1875 deed.
4. Mary Gill born born 1838 in AL, married Cornelius Chamberlain
5. Thomas F. Gill born 1839 in Lowndes Co., AL. Not mentioned by his mother in the 1875 deed.
6. Laura Melissa Gill (Laura Malissa)(Lama Missella) (Demamisella) (f) b. 1845 in AL married 1864 James W. Bouler in Clarke Co., AL. This is the line of C. Griffin. 1864. James W. Bouler to Miss Laura M. Gill, married 6 Oct. 1864 (Clarke Co. Marriage Book B p340, courtesty C. Griffin)

(7) Catherine Gill nfi. This Catherine Gill did not marry John Myrick. John Myrick born 1792, SC married March 17, 1825 in Clarke Co., AL to Catharine Gillis, b. 1805 in Scotland. This is not only from the 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880 Clarke Co., AL census, but also from our family Bible dated 1887. She came to america when she was 18 years and married at 20. [I don't know who Catherine Gill married.](from B. Nichols)

(8) Rebecca Gill born before 1812. Perhaps the only documented child. (1833: Clarke Co., AL Deed Book D p364). Could this be a daughter of Richard Gill, Junior?

Does anyone have further information, and especially documentation, on the children of Richard Gill? Please forward it if so.

William Goodwyn b<1733 married Mary Howell Hart (undocumented, from Mrs. Hicks). Although Mrs. Hicks states Wm. Goodwyn as father of Hannah, Mr. Andrea states Uriah Goodwyn was the father of Hannah Goodwyn, wife of James Gill! I (FOC) have as yet seen no documentation to support either. Mr. Andrea states that (Mr. Andrea Record #166) her father was Uriah Gill: I am to begin some work on Goodwin & Goodwyn ... I find early a Uriah Goodwin who was father in law of James Gill #16. ... Note the name of Uriah Gill comes down in the Richland Co. set of Gill. .. I will make a report of this when I do the Goodwin data. Mr. Andrea Record #169 states that: "Recall that Saxe-Gotha a part of Orangeburgh was just across the Congaree River in Richland Co. Uriah Goodwyn Sr. & Jr. both resided in Saxe-Gotha of Orangeburgh and Saturday I found where Uriah Goodwin was named in 1785 as one of the first Justices of the Quorum in Saxe-Gotha. This was a son of Uriah Goodwyn, Sr. and a brother of Mrs. James Gill & widow. This Mrs. James Gill was named Hannah Gill. I hope when I do the Goodwin data that I may find proof that Hannah Goodwyn wed James Gill #16. I may not be able to do it however since Sherman burned the Orangeburgh data." A Goodwyn doing genealogy of these Richland Goodwyns had no record of a Hannah Goodwyn in 1997.

Since the name Uriah does pop up in children of Richard Gill, who is in all liklihood a son of James Gill's wife, Hannah, Hannah as a daughter of Uriah Goodwyn makes some logical sense as the source of this name.

Children of Wm. Goodwyn and Mary Howell Hart of Richland Co., SC (or was it Uriah Goodwyn??), these are not documented!

1. Hannah Goodwyn supposedly married James Gill
2. Uriah Goodwyn born c1754 will 1786, mentions brothers and sisters, no children. (Mrs. Hicks July 1991 p5). Wm. Hay willed slaves to Uriah Goodwyn and Sarah Bowers widow of Hy Bowers (ibid p8).

We have an old Gen. done by some member of the family back into the early 1950's. Here is some of it. Saw your richland co. mention of the goodwyn family and thought this might help. I have started to verify this lineage and know that most of it is correct. Copyright 2000 Nancy C. Reeves.

Subject: Adding the Rev War GILL notes of S.C.

Hi Lewie --

I'd like to add the GILL Rev War notes on 'some' of the above men as well to clarify.
The microfilm is probably available at most libraries, I didn't write the number down, but the film is re: the pension claims in alphabetical order. I also did the GILES, GILS, but for now will just add the S.C. GILL to your specific list.

James GILL R4023 had the "best" clues for me.
So I'll add his abstract 1st.
In 1832 in GREENE CO., AL. aged 72 yrs. He served as a private under Capt. Walker in S.C.
1776 or 1777 entered Service in Chester Dist. S.C.- marched to Edgefield District, Forks of Broad & ?? -- and to Saluda into the Dutch Settlement at Dutch Fork. They raided this settlement for supplies the Dutch purportedly kept for the British and Tories. They marched onto Orangeburgh.
He stated his two (2) brothers, Thomas and George GILL, Capt. Hardridge FROST and James GILL and Archilbald GILL (he stated they were his "cousins") on this expedition under General ANDERSON whose command was at Orangeburgh.
He states he knows his birth from a Family Bible. He was born 14 April 1760 in N.J. That age 6 he left N.J. for Chester Dist. S.C. with his father and family.
After the war, he left Chester Dist. S.C. in 1811 for TN. "Davidson Co." In 1818 he left Davidson Co., TN. for Tuscaloosa Co., Alabama. 1823 From Tuscaloosa AL he went to Greene Co., AL where he has since lived.
He signed his affadavit for pension as James GILL. Note that he died 14 Apr 1842 in Greene Co., AL.
Martha H. STEBBINS one of 6 children of James and Mary Ann (FOX) GILL applied for 1/6 of his pension in 1859.
She applied 14 Mar. 1859 from Probate Ct. in MS. Martha H. STEBBINS, aged 54. Her statements related that her parents, Mary Ann FOX and James GILL married in S.C. The children of Mary Ann and James GILL were:
besides Martha, George Gill age 42 in Davidson Co., TN (as of 1860), Nathan GILL age 48 in Hempstead Co, Ark., John P. GILL age 54 in Fort Bexar Co., State of Texas (see the Handbook of Texas Online for more about him and his brother, Robert J. GILL)
Robert J. GILL age 52 in George Co., State of Texas. Elizabeth P.(Gill), age 49, wife of Robert H. Dennis, Winston Co., MS. Susannah (Gill) CHERRY b. 6 July 1812 d. 1845 left 1 children (Drinetta? 18 yrs. & J. G. CHERRY aged 11 yrs) in Monroe Co., MS - Husband J. B. CHERRY.

GEORGE GILL pension claim #S21,229
*Brother
Pension Affadavit in 1832, residing in Chester District S.C., had been a Priv. in the Cav. & Inf. under Capt. Jones & Col. Lacy. He served S.C. regmt. 24 months.
He was 71 and a Chester District, S.C. resident on 22 Oct. 1832 affadivit. He 1st served under the above officers in 1780 April with the S.C. Militia. They went to Nelson's Ferry on the Santee River to the fall of Charleston, then returned home. He also mentions (in a later outing at Wright's Bluff, on Scotts Lake on Santee, they marched down to Gen'l Sumpter's Plantation, then had to convoy home "with a wounded brother" - injured at Wright's Bluff. He also mentioned Fort Congaree.
He knows his age, "my age transferred from my father's Bible to my own Bible, now property of one of my sons"... "Living in same neighborhood now as at my enlistment".
He also had made the statement of being born in N.J. and coming to S.C. when young.

THOMAS GILL pension #S31,06l
He knows his age, as it's in "my Bible". He gives it as Aug. 27, 1755, born in N J. He stated that since the war (Rev. War) he has resided in S.C., Ky, and now in IL.
His pension petition 1838, as a resident of Lamotte Twsp., Crawford Co., IL.
Re: enlistment in 1778 in Camden Dist. S.C. for 9 months. Dec. 1778 he was under Capt. Philip WALKER. 1780 he was a LT. under Capt. Alxr. PAGAN for 1yr. 6mo. 1782 he was appointed a Captain.

He died 30th Aug. 1838. In 1839 2 of 9 children, Elizabeth BRYAN and Nancy KITCHELL, had signed documents to obtain pension. Another piece of paper mentioned 6 of 9 children (But I saw no names).

RE: "The Cousins"
Archibald GILL -- NOT on this roll of microfilm ----
James GILL -- NOT on this roll of film

Robert GILL R4024 Born Pa. Service in S.C. has "better clues" and is one I believe you have referenced to.
Robert Gill, from LOGAN Co., state of KY.
Dec. 1833, "I was born in PA....1764 " known from my father's Bible. Leaving PA. at early age for Chester Co., S.C.
1781 he was drafted in Chester Co., S.C. - served 3 months in the S.C. Militia under Innes RAMSEY, John ADAIR - fought in Orangesburgh, against Tories. Was in Charleston. Dishcarged at Orangesburgh.
1782 (*early) was at John MILLS house in Chester Co., to the Sandy River.
He signed ROBERT GILL.

From the State of ALABAMA , Greene Co.,1833, James GILL (signed his name) RE: his brother, Robert GILL, knew his brother to have enlisted under Capt John MILLS of Chester Co., S.C.....Oct. 1833.

John Houston has a note in Robert GILL's file as:"Mr. Gill's brother, Thomas,one of the first settlers of this county and a Capt. in the Rev. War. He drew a handsome pension until his death 5 years ago. I have been acquainted with Mr. Robert GILL for some time...signed John Houston. This was from Ill. *I need to check my film again (sorry). But Thomas and Robert GILL both eventually died in ILL.
Robert GILL died 1841 in Il. Thomas died late 1830s..see above or a D.A.R. file.

Anyway, this helps add more information to these Fishing Creek , Chester Co., S.C. GILLS.

I still need help on the Camden District/RICHLAND Co./S.C. - Congarees/Gills' Creek men if anyone has that. THANKS

GRANDPA KIGHT
(As told to Aunt Delia by Grandpa and his son, Mack Kight)

There were three sets of children, evidently all boys, as I have never heard him mention having a sister. His mother died when he was about two weeks old and his half-brother and wife took him to raise. They had two children of their own at the time, a boy named Tom, who later married Grandmother Kight's sister and moved to Oklahoma and whose descendants live there to this day; and a girl whose name I do not remember but believe it was Emily or Ethel or Emma, who married and went to Wynn Parish, La., although this brother and his wife later had other children. He very often said these two seemed like his brother and sister because they were about the same age as he and they grew up together, as brothers and sisters.

When he was three years old his half-brother and family migrated from Alabama to northern Louisiana. His father also went along but evidently died soon after arriving in Louisiana.

Grandpa couldn't remember but one thing of the trip from Alabama and possibly he remembered that because it made such a deep impression on his mind seeing everybody was scared. The wagon trail went through a dense cane break and he could remember seeing two Indians squatting by a fire right beside the trail.

I fail to remember the name of the town in Alabama where they moved from but it was in the northwestern part of the state. By the way, I have a faint remembrance of Grandpa telling me one time that he was born and his mother died on the road from South Carolina to Alabama.

His half-brother had to fight in the Civil War and contracted some disease, possibly malaria or T.B., anyway they came to Texas for his health, and settled in Erath County somewhere near Stephenville. I don't know how long they lived there but Grandpa said they went back to Louisiana. By that time Grandpa was nineteen years old and wanting to get married, so he told his sister-in-law that she could get along now as the younger children were getting up about grown. She moved back to Erath County where her husband later died. Descendants of these children are living today in that county and all the way down to Llano.

Grandpa rented a farm on halves from Uncle John White who later became his brother-in-law. Later that same year he and Dolly White were married, both were nineteen years old, she being just six months the older. They grew up and played together all their lives. He very often in later years teased her about going in naked, swimming with him when they were little.

He very often told me about having borrowed a suit from Uncle John White in which to get married, not having one of his own.

Of his older set of half-brothers, I think they must have stayed in South Carolina when his father went to Alabama as he did not seem to know anything about them. Of the second set, I think there were four. Three of them evidently came on to Texas before or about the time the other arrived in Louisiana. One settled in Oklahoma, one somewhere around Paris, Texas, and of course the one in Erath County, and another somewhere between Eagle Pass and El Paso.

Several years ago when my son, Francis, was in high school, he belonged to the 4H Club. A new county agent came to Robstown from Eagle Pass. The first time he met with the 4H Club he walked right up to Francis as soon as he came in and said: "Your name is Kight, isn't it?" Francis said: "Yes", and he said: "I knew it as soon as I walked in the door. There was a boy named Kight in my 4H class where I came from and you look exactly like him, curly hair and all and he is about your age." At first glance he evidently thought it was the same boy.

Several years ago we were coming home from a trip through the Rockies. We had spent the night in Las Cruces, New Mexico. The highway at that time ran right down the bank of the Rio Grande River into El Paso. A few miles out of El Paso we went through a small village and on a store front we saw the name Kight, with initials, but I don't remember them. I've always wanted to go back and talk with him.

Mrs. Rogers, of whom I will write later, knew of these Kights and said this half-brother had a daughter who was a nurse in the State Hospital in San Antonio for a number of years.

While Grandpa was living in Corpus Christi with Mack, a nephew, the son of the half-brother in Paris, Texas, visited him often while he was spending the winters with his daughter, Mrs. Rogers. He and his daughter were at Grandpa's funeral. He was an old gentleman seventy-five years old at the time. I talked with Mrs. Rogers. She had one brother and one sister living in or near Paris,Texas. Later her husband died and she remarried and I think went to live in Beaumont, Texas. One of her sons was named Kight Rogers, named for her brother. I used to, now and then, see his name in the Corpus newspaper on the sports page as he owned a pleasure boat. Mrs. Rogers herself had been a school teacher before marriage. She was a very beautiful woman.

Grandpa had several peculiarities that could always create a source of amusement, especially to the in-laws and friends before they came to know him well. One that I can recall very well was his ability to sing in his sleep. He was a very good singer and often he would get started on an old familiar sacred song and in a loud and clear voice sing an entire song without ever awakening.

Another was his habit of always washing his feet and trimming his toenails before going anywhere. He was very slow and never got in a hurry. Grandmother Kight often told me of an occasion just before Mack was born. One day right after dinner she told him he must go for the doctor and hurry. He had to wash his feet and trim his toenails, but he finally got started on horseback. After some hours they saw him coming with the doctor, also on horseback, but when they got to the end of the lane leading up to the house, they met another man on horseback. All three were great hunters and each owned a pack of fox hounds, so they sat there and discussed their hounds till dark. In the meantime, Grandmother Kight had sent one of the older children after an old colored woman who was also a midwife living nearby and Mack was born and everything taken care of long before Grandpa and the doctor arrived.

Both Grandpa and Grandmother Kight had curly hair, his not as curly as hers. He had a ruddy complexion and the brightest blue eyes I ever saw. Of the eight children living only two had eyes that were not brown like their mother's and neither of the two had true blue eyes but were what is called green which is a mixture of blue and brown. They were John Thomas Kight and William Stephen Kight. Of the grandchildren I have seen, Pearlie has eyes the nearest color to his and one of my little granddaughters has eyes as clear and nearly as blue.

The only schooling Grandpa ever had was about six weeks one summer when he went with his two oldest children, but he could read and write. He wrote me a letter when my son was born. I regret very much that I did not keep it for my children and grandchildren.

THINGS I HAVE BEEN TOLD AND REMEMBER ABOUT GRANDPA AND GRANNIE KIGHT

Grandpa told me he was born in the Carolinas. His mother died when he was born and he was taken by his half-brother to raise. He was nursed at his sister-in-law's breast with his niece, Kate. (My sister was named for her.) Grandpa always spoke of his niece, Kate as his sister and loved her very much. He went to see her in 1928 when he was staying with me. She was living in Arkansas at that time.

Grandpa's mother was 1/8 Cherokee Indian, his brother Marion Kight told him. Marion went off to the Civil War and left Grandpa and his wife and little children to make their way along. All of the men were having to do the same thing. Grandpa and Aunt Kate were 8 years old, and he said that was when he plowed and made his first crop. Marion came home at the close of the war a sick man, and never regained his health. He finally brought his wife and family to North Louisiana and settled. He passed away there.

Grandpa never had an opportunity to go to school, in fact when he married he could not read or write. His first chance to go to school was after my mother, (his daughter) was going.

Grandpa had a keen sense of right and wrong and you would never find him on the wrong side. His word was indeed his bond. He had a wonderful memory, was a very devout christian gentleman, and in his younger days very strict. He was of the Calvinistic school, but as he grew older and read more he became more lenient with the grandchildren.

He was a tall man, with keen blue eyes. He wore a long black beard and moustache until after Grannie passed away. The grandchildren began to shave him and they kept leaving him less and less and less until it was gone. I think "Manny Boy" and Kate finally got it all. I will always thank my Heavenly Father for giving me such a fine grandfather and Grannie.

Grannie was born in Louisiana, to a very well-off family. My mother said Grannie's father had a large plantation and freed a hundred slaves at the close of the Civil War. Grannie's mother was Elizabeth Autley before she married. The Autleys came over from England and settled in the Carolinas. I remember Grannie saying, when Uncle Mack or Uncle John would do something she did not approve, "Well, that's just like those English Autleys."

Grannie was a small, kind person, always busy, and a wonderful cook. I remember going with her to the garden to get vegetables and we would come to the house with her apron full of all kinds of good things to cook for dinner. She could make the best chicken and dumplings and pies you would ever want. She made the most beautiful handwork of anyone. Her delight was quilting and making them for her boys. She made such small stitches, I tried often but could not duplicate them.

Grannie became an invalid and was bedfast in her later days, and was cared for by her children and husband, especially Uncle Mack and Uncle Clevie, as they never married until after she died. I remember Uncle Clevie sleeping at the side of her bed and she had a long stick and would punch him with it when she wanted anything. I saw him many times pick her up in his arms and put her in a chair and she would cook a meal. She would sit in bed and piece quilts, and somehow Uncle Clevie fixed the frames so she could quilt them.

She passed away and by her request was buried by the side of my brother in the San Marcos Cemetery, as he was the only kin buried in Texas at that time.

CHILDHOOD MEMORIES
(Written by John Kellogg Kight)

My earliest recollection of my grandfather was a visit he made to our home, located at 616 N. Olive St., just one mile up on the hill east of the Alamo. He came in with a load of watermelons in a large farm wagon, pulled by two large mules. Time was about 1911, probably the middle of July.

I well remember he drove into our backyard through the gate on the south fence and turned the two mules loose to eat grass during the night. Next morning,my father (John, the oldest boy) discovered the front hydrant had been broken off just below ground level and we had water squirting about 15 feet in the air. My father made a quick repair by driving a smooth plug he whittled from a broom stick. As I remember it, Grandpa drove around the neighborhood selling the melons. Neighbors also came by our house and bought melons right off the wagon which was the custom in those days.

On one of these visits to our home with melons, my mother and I returned to the farm with Grandpa, leaving before daylight. We had very heavy rain most of the way but the white wagon sheet was stretched tight over the bows and very little water came into the "spacious" hay-covered wagon bed. Mother and I had a good time sitting on chairs in the rear area in the deep hay while Grandpa had to work the team, sitting high on the spring seat up front. I think he got mighty wet but he never complained one word that I knew of.

By 1:00 o'clock, we had gotten as far as the Rockport road crossing (Four Corners). We still had about 3 miles to go before we would get to his home and the excellent dinner we knew Grandma had waiting for us. Grandpa pulled up in front of the old Frieze home, first house on right, south of the Rockport Road, and telephoned his folk telling them to wait dinner for us. As I remember it, that was a wonderful meal as Grandma was an excellent cook. Those meals always consisted of produce taken fresh out of her garden - fresh corn, peas, tomatoes, squash, onions, beets, etc., chicken along with milk gravy, hot biscuits with plenty of butter and preserves - sweet milk or buttermilk for the kids. Coffee was for the old folk only.

My father told me of his trip from Lincoln Parish, Louisiana to South Texas on the train; this was in 1895. Grandpa moved from Louisiana to Live Oak County in hopes it would save Grandma's life from a serious attack of malaria fever and possibly severe asthma trouble, too.

Grandpa was no doubt a good farmer back in Louisiana but he hit Texas during a drought and dry land farming is quite difficult for the native farmer let alone someone used to the regular rain they get in North Louisiana. After two seasons of poor crops in Live Oak County, Grandpa moved his family to a section of land (640 acres) located on the Bexar-Atascosa line just one mile east of the Palo Alto Road. This is deep, sandyland and back before the turn of the century all this area was covered with a turf and lush grass standing several feet high. The landscape was dotted with small islands of live oak trees and blue bonnets covered the open fields.

Grandpa picked a beautiful spot near an island of giant live oak trees, about the middle of his square mile of land, given him by the State of Texas as a homestead. It was November of 1897 when they set up the tent in which the family lived one year until he could build the house on the top of a hill about 300 yards east of his tent location.

While the family was camped in the tent location, Grandpa and the five sons were very busy clearing land for the first crop in the Spring of 1899. A water well was drilled about 200 feet deep right under a limb of a large live oak tree. The drop auger tools for drilling this well were borrowed from his neighbor to the south of his acreage, Mr. Carl Theodore Mumme.

My father told how he accompanied his father to visit his neighbor for the first time to borrow tools for the well job. On this very first visit to the well-established Mumme Ranch, my father noted a number of interesting teen-age girls who kept themselves out of sight of the strangers but never the less were not going to miss seeing what went on. If I recall correctly, Grandpa Kight came away with the well-digging equipment and the loan of a good horse to boot.

In 1900, Grandpa sold his 160 acres of Louisiana farm land and a new home, he had built several years before, to the Harkness family and used the money to enlarge his acreage in the new location. Land cost him 50¢ to $1.00 per acre at that time. Within several years, Grandpa Kight had quite a good-size farm, about 125 acres in cultivation, but it was real hard work and his family had worked from sun to sun to accomplish the job.

By 1902, my father had made many visits to the Mumme Ranch and he was very much in love with one of the Mumme girls he saw on that first visit several years before. Rosalie was a beautiful German girl, 23 years old in 1902, my father being 21 years old and as ambitious a young man as could be found anywhere. This young lady persuaded my father to go to school and get a "bit of education" before they were married.

My father came to San Antonio and attended the Alamo City Commercial College where he received a diploma qualifying him to teach school. He taught one term at a small country school located on the Somerset Road at the Medina River Crossing - this was in 1904 and 1905. He lived at his home and rode horseback from home to school part of the time, when the horse was available. Otherwise, he boarded in the home of a neighbor near the school.

Wedding day came Sept. 3, 1905, the ceremony being held in the well-appointed ranch home of neighbor, C. T. Mumme. My father and mother were made an offer by Mrs. C. T. Mumme to stay and manage the vast ranch holdings, Mr. Mumme having passed away a short while before. This interesting offer was turned down flat by my father and in Grandpa's words, I remember hearing him say many years later that "John was burned out on farm work during the hard years the Kights were working from sun to sun clearing land and putting in crops."

In any event, they turned their backs to the farm and ranch work for the beckoning of the growing city of San Antonio, then the largest city in Texas. On arriving in San Antonio, my parents moved to a house in the 500 block of Burnet St. where they lived until building the present home at 616 N. Olive St., moving sometime in Sept., 1906.

During these early years on the new farm, Stephen Kight, his wife and the family still at home (except Elizabeth, "Lizzie", who had married before the family came to Texas) made progress slowly but steady. More land was bought, stock was increasing in numbers, and the children managed to attend school in winter when field work was laid by. I understand Grandpa attended school along with his children for a short period earlier in his life as he had no opportunity to go to school as a young boy.

Around the turn of the century, Southwest Texas was on the boom, railroads were being built all through the area south and east of San Antonio. Dr. Simmonds, originator of the Dr. Simmonds Liver Regulator medicine so famous about that time, began construction of the Artesian Belt Railroad running from Macdona on the S. P. main line to Christian, a townsite some 10 miles south of Jourdanton, Texas. The rails ran just 1 mile south of Grandpa Kight's home, in fact, the townsite of Fruitland, Texas was laid out in the southwest corner of the Mumme Ranch.

I well remember the nice railroad station with waiting rooms, ticket office, and the station master's telegraph ticker key which was always ticking away. Street sign posts were visible for many years to the south of the station and I remember hearing Grandpa and my father talking about the excursion trains bringing people from faraway states to South Texas in search of new lands for farming and ranching. Many unsuspecting home seekers were sold small tracts of land or lots in these new townsited laid out along the railroad right-of-ways. Many of these towns never materialized except on the maps.

Many pleasant trips to Grandpa and Grandma Kight's farm started very early in the morning when my father and mother and I would leave our home on Olive St., get on the trolley car and ride over to the I&GN Depot. We would get on the only passenger coach which, along with the baggage car, was on the rear end of 15 or 20 freight cars.

On one of these trips I remember Aunt Mary McCall was on board with a small baby, Roy, and he was afraid of all the new noise, wind and dust going through the car as we bumped over the countryside. The track and road bed were rough and real dusty after leaving the I&GN main line and I can see now it was an ordeal to travel in those days with children.

When we arrived at the Fruitland Depot, Grandpa was there in the old wagon. Aunt Mary, my mother and all the kids rode in the wagon but my father and Grandpa walked along side holding the reins in their hands. The sand was deep and the team was stopped often for them to get their breath.

We could see Grandma standing in the south doorway watching for us to drive up out of the woods. We all enjoyed the good dinner which she so ably prepared for us. One thing for sure, the table was always loaded with food - and did we eat! Of course, the hounds and cat were always under the table looking for a handout from some of us kids. The children set on a long bench next to the west wall and we could look out of the only window and enjoy the cool breeze, too.

Dinner over, all of the children went out under the big chinaberry trees to play - usually in the sand and swing in an old rope swing. About three or four o'clock, the big watermelons were cut up on the east porch - and did they taste good!

About 1916, the old Fruitland Station house was moved down to the Palo Alto road crossing and named Tarbutton Station. During World War I, this road was improved to where it was possible to drive out from town in a horse and buggy rig my father would hire for the day. We could drive from the Livery Stable on Travis St. to Grandpa's farm in four hours and by leaving early we could be out to his house by 10:00 A.M.

We would enjoy a visit and be with Grandma, who was sick in bed most of the time by now. She suffered a lot during the war years and I remember the very day she passed away - Nov. 4, 1920. She died in the afternoon and they called our home on the phone. My mother indicated father was out on his regular postal clerk run to Crystal City on the SAU&G railroad but would be in about 5:00 P.M. Mother sent me to meet him at the Katy Depot on So. Flores St. The train was on time and when I climbed into the mail car, my father asked me how everything was. I remember I said "everything was OK except Grandma passed away this afternoon." Father didn't say one word and I noticed after awhile the tears were in his eyes and of course, I was sad, too.

We went home on the trolley together and after a quick supper we again got on the trolley car along with my two brothers, William Bryan and Jonathan, and mother. We rode to the end of the So. Flores St. car line and there we got in a service car (Chevrolet 490) and drove late into the night until we came to the gate leading off Palo Alto Road to Grandpa Kight's home. Father paid the operator and we walked the full mile to the house in pitch darkness.

My mother and several neighbor ladies prepared Grandma's body and placed it in the coffin late that night. Next day, she was taken for burial to San Marcos, Texas. All during the four or five years of sickness Grandma had to endure, her two sons, Cleveland and Mack, were in constant attendance, day and night looking to her every need.

After Grandma's passing, the old place was never the same again. Grandpa's health was not so good, so early in 1921 he came to stay with us here on Olive St. because we were close to the street car and the doctor, downtown. I was thirteen years old at this time and I can remember mother and I had our hands full taking Grandpa to the doctor's office about twice a week on the street car; of course, no one had automobiles in those days except the rich folk.

Grandpa decided to try out the chiropractors - it was something new and his problem was stiffness in all his joints. After a few weeks of treatment by the chiropractor, I was able to get him on and off the street car by myself. Mother didn't have to go along anymore. He made wonderful progress and within three or four months he was able to go back to his farm. In fact, he put in a late crop that year, built fence and was doing fine.

After a year or so on the farm, he began visiting his children's homes and would stay several months at each one. Finally, he moved to Corpus Christi to live with his son, Mack and family. He seemed to enjoy his stay there and the good care Uncle Mack and Aunt Grace gave him.

Grandpa passed away in November of 1934 at the ripe old age of 83 years and is buried in Corpus Christi, Texas. I am proud of my father and his parents - they were pioneers and helped open up Southwest Texas along with many other fine people of that generation.

PIMBLEY'S DICTIONARY OF HERALDRY....

A GLOSSARY OF TERMS USED IN HERALDRY by JAMES PARKER (1st pub. in 1894)

KEYT - COAT OF ARMS

Keyt of Ebrington, Gloucestershire, England -Baronet, extinct 1784; descended from William Keyt, Esq., of Ebrington, High Sheriff of Worcester, 1632, whose grandson, John Keyt, was created a baronet in 1660.

BLAZON: Azure (blue), a chevron between three kites' heads erased Or (gold), as many trefoils slipped Gules (red).

CREST: A kite's head erased Or (gold).

NOTE: The family of Keyt appear, however, to have borne the chevron uncharged, and thus the coat occurs on the monument of William Keyt, of Ebrington, 1632.

KEYTE - COAT OF ARMS

Keyte of Cheselborne, Dorsetshire and Worcestershire, England

BLAZON: Azure (blue), a chevron between three kites' heads erased Or (gold), as many trefoils slipped Gules (red).

CREST: A unicorn's head erased Argent (silver), armed and collared Gules (red).

KITE - COAT OF ARMS

Kite or Keyte of Cheselborne, Dorsetshire and Worcestershire, England

Kite or Keyte, the Lord Mayor of London, 1767

BLAZON: Azure (blue), a chevron between three kites' heads erased Or (gold).

CREST: A unicorn's head erased Argent (silver), armed and collared Gules (red).

KYTE - COAT OF ARMS

Kyte

BLAZON: Azure (blue), a chevron between three kites' heads erased Or (gold), as many tulips flowered Gules (red) and leaved Vert (green).

CREST: N/A.

Husband David Jr KITE

Wife

Notes

HUSBAND - David Jr KITE

David Kite had several wives. I have not separated his children by the different wives. From the birth dates of the first four children, it appears that they were by his first or second marriage. It is said that the name of this wife was Cynthia White, but I have no proof. In The Stephen James Family by Mrs. Henry Bruce Harvey and Mrs. John Kellogg Kight, Stephen, born in 1851, relates that there were three sets of children, evidently all boys. He said that his mother, name not given, died when he was about two weeks old and his half-brother and wife took him to raise. This half-brother was Francis Marion Kite. David's last wife was Peggy Winsor. They had three children (names given to me by Krisanne Hoopes): Cynthia Ann, David (her ancestor) and William.

Parentage of David Kite is uncertain. This found on RootsWeb Message Boards, posted 26 Apr 2001: Sarah Francis Kight born in Randolph County, AL, Father was Shadrack (Shaw) Kight born 1805 in South Carolina. Married in 1837, died 2 Nov 1891. Mother was Nancy Evaline las name unknown, born 1816 in South Carolina. Died in 1886. Grandfather was David Kight born 1775 and Great Grandfather was Samuel Kight. This is interesting because the family of Shadrack Kight (Kite) is found on the 1850 Randolph County, AL Census in Beat #1 on page 354. Francis Marion Kite and wife Cynthia are also found in Beat #1 on page 369. I feel that there is a relationship between Shadrack and Francis Marion, with the possibility that Shadrack is Francis Marion's uncle.

In an e-mail from George ? on 24 March 2001: "David Kight, Sr and David Kight, Jr were in Pitt County, NC, 1820 census. Jr probably became Sr later, I have a bit of information that he may have had two/three wives. I have no information other than they were father and son and junior had wife by name of Cynthia/Synthia."

CHILD 1 - Irene KITE

Information about Irene Kite sent to me by Julian Kight Lane.

CHILD 2 - Francis Marion KITE

Francis Marion Kite's mother may have been named Cynthia White. Have no proof of this other than word of mouth. Also do not know if Cynthia White was related to Henry J. White who married Francis Marion Kite's daughter Lunicia Minerva.

CHILD 3 - Elijah KITE

Confederate Research Sources, Vol 2, K, page 558: Kight, Elijah, Pvt. Co. H, 12th La. Inf. Enlisted May 13, 1862, Monroe, La. Present on Rolls to April 1863. Roll for May and June, 1863, Absent, sent back from near Edwards Depot to Big Black Bridge after rations, May 16, 1863. Roll for July and Aug., 1863, Died at Vicksburg, during the bombardment.

Marriage informtion sent to me by Julian Kight Lane.

CHILD 4 - John Paty KITE

Information sent to me by descendant Julian Kight Lane.

Obituary found on Rootweb.com: 3 May 1900: Died at his home in Stephenville on last Sunday, April 29th, at 1 a.m., John Kight...Two sons, Lee Kight, of bluff Dale and Lewis Kight, of Proctor, a daughter, Mrs. T. A. Price of this city, and several grandchildren were present...The remaining son, Will Kight of Avoca, arrived in time to witness the funeral ceremonies.

CHILD 6 - David KITE

Information about David Kite sent to me by descendant Krisanne Hoopes. One of the documents she sent was David's death certificate which states that his father was David Kight and his mother was Peggie Windsor.

CHILD 8 - Stephen James KITE

In The Stephen James Family by Mrs. Henry Bruce Harvey and Mrs. John Kellogg Kight, Stephen, born in 1851, relates that there were three sets of children, evidently all boys. He said that his mother, name not given, died when he was about two weeks old and his half-brother and wife took him to raise. This half-brother was Francis Marion Kite.

I primarily am researching the GEE family and related lines. I am not a KITE descendant but have compiled a little data here as there while researching the GEEs. Here is the sum total of what little KITE info I have:

The KITE family apparently settled in Burleson Co., TX, before moving to Erath County. I think you will find in the Burleson County marriage records that David Kite md. Martha Angeline RHYMES, 18 Jan 1872. Also, Samuel KITE (I assume a brother to David) md. S.A. BURNS, 16 Feb 1870. David KITE indeed may have md. a "Dorothy," but I have no record of it.

The 1880 US census of Erath County (p. 67) shows David and Samuel living side by side:

KITE, David - b. 1846 - AL, GA, GA
- Martha A. (nee RHYMES) - b. 1850 - MS, MS, MS
- Lilly V. - b. 1874 - TX, AL, MS
- John W. - b. 1875 - " " "
- Lena E. - b. 1877 - " " "
- Mary E. - b. 1879 - " " "

KITE, Samuel - b. 1844 - GA, NC, NC
- Sally Ann (nee BURNS) - b. 1841 - GA, GA, SC
- Mary A. (Alice) - b. 1870 - TX, GA, GA
- Martha E. - b. 1872 - " " "
- Polly Ann - b. 1874 - " " "
- James F. - b. 1877 - " " "
- Anna M. - b. 1878 - " " "

Samuel KITE was living in the household of George O. (Oscar) GEE, his son-in-law, at the 1910 US census of Erath County. Oscar GEE, son of William Thomas GEE and Mary E. COLLIER, md. Mary Alice KITE, 28 Oct 1886 in Erath County. Published records of Erath's Barbee Cemetery show that Callie (sic) A. KITE, wife of Samuel KITE, was b. 13 Jun 1841; d. 21? Jan 1895. (BTW, Barbee Cemetery is also where John Wesley KITE and Minnie Ulman HANCOCK are buried. There may be other KITE burials there, but I did not make a note of them.)

I also found where a J.D. KITE md. M.S. GRANT, 23 Jul 1876 in Erath County. J.D. must be related to this

KITE line, as he and Samuel each sold land in Erath County (near the Comanche county line) to William Thomas GEE in 1886 and 1887, respectively.

I also have a cryptic note in my file (copied from Erath deed records) indicating that Samuel KITE was named guardian of Martha E., Hallie A., J.F., Anna M., William B. and John S. KITE (all of Lavaca Co., TX?). These were his own children, so he undoubtedly claimed guardianship in order to sell land purchased while his wife was still living. Unfortunately, I did not make a note of the date or deed book/page numbers. Perhaps, someone else will be able to fill in the blanks.

As I said, this is the only KITE data I have. However, I will be happy to provide additional details if I can.

Died.

At his home in Stephenville on last Sunday, April 29th, at 1. a. m., John Kight passed away, surrounded by his relations and friends. Having suffered more than falls to the lot of ordinary man, yet living to a ripe old age, Mr. Kight was willing and ready to meet the end.

So died a man like whom there are few—a man whose word was absolutely true, whose promise was always kept,, whose debt was ever paid—a man of whom every one who knew him says, "there died an honest man."

Two sons, Lee Kight, of Bluff Dale and Lewis Kight, of Proctor, a daughter, Mrs. T. A. Price, of this city, and several grandchildren were present during the illness to minister to his wants and to comfort the wife and mother.

The remaining son, Will Kight, of Avoca, arrived in time to witness the funeral ceremonies.

Mrs. Jim Robinson left Monday for a visit to her old home in Marshal Texas.

Wife Cynthia

Notes

HUSBAND - Francis Marion KITE

Francis Marion Kite's mother may have been named Cynthia White. Have no proof of this other than word of mouth. Also do not know if Cynthia White was related to Henry J. White who married Francis Marion Kite's daughter Lunicia Minerva.

WIFE - Cynthia

Cynthia's surname is said to be Griffin. It is possibly she that is found on the 1880 census in Saline, Hempstead, Arkansas in the household of William GEIFFEN. Her relationship is niece and her marital status is widow. She was 47 years old, born in Georgia, father born in North Carolina and mother born in Georgia. It is possible that the name of her uncle and his family was spelled incorrectly or the transcription on FamilySearch.com is incorrect. More research is needed.

Peggy/Margaret Windsor b. abt 1813 or 1814 SC is my GGGrandmother. She married a David Kight and 3 children one of which is my GGrandfather David Kight. I am pretty sure that she died in Alabama, because David Sr. moved to Louisiana. David Jr. is found on the 1860 Louisiana, Jackson, Vienna Census with his half brother Elijah. David was listed as being 5 and being born in Alabama. On David Kight's Jr.death certificate lists his mother as Peggy Windsor. I have recently been researching her and her family. I am very interested in her family. I am very willing to share my information that I have. I would loved to learn more about this family.

Melanie,

My address is: Krisanne Hoopes, 3530 E. Carol, Mesa, AZ 85204. I can't remember exactly what my message in genforum was, but the reason I have this history is because Debra Kight, who used to do lots of history gave a copy of it to my dad. Some of Stephen's descendants had made this copy and had given it to her. There are quite a few Kights scattered in the Webster, Claiborne, and Lincoln Parishes in LA. I feel that they are connected, but I don't have a clue how to connect them all. In some of the marriage records I have obtained, some of my other relatives, there are Kights that were witnesses. Most of the time they just used initials. It is so neat though how they were intertwined with some of my other lines, specifically my Heflin and Roberson or Robinson line. Family History is the best! It is fun finding the names, but it is so great to find histories and records. I believe that it is more than just fate. I believe that these ancestors want us to remember them! Their lives have had an influence on our own. In the past six months I have collected a notebook full of information on so many people! I am so excited to find information on the Kight line! Thanks a bunch! I will try to get the stuff copied and sent to you soon. It maybe a week or so, because I have company right now. Thanks again.

Krisanne

> Dear Krisanne, Wow! This is exciting and I want your address also so I can send you what I have on Francis Marion's and Lunicia's family. This is my husband's family. However, he and his father are both deceased, so I'm doing this for my children. I have two, a son and daughter. My son and his wife are expecting my first grandchild, so I really feel like I have a real purpose to find out more about both mine and my husband's families. I've been researching for 20 years and never had any luck with the White's or Kite's until this past week. I've heard that a great part of research is fate and I really believe it. My address is:

I am glad to find you also. Sometimes it feels like no one else is researching the same families so it is a real thrill to connect.

Melanie,

What are the names of two half brothers of Francis Marion? I have Sarah Kite/Kight that I have not connected to parents, although her Children by Richard Gibbs--Samuel, Caswell, Major Edmond indicate that she is very close to the Kite's with same name's. As you said, little bits and pieces, do help bring conclusion.

Your copy of estate records of Henry Kite will be mailed Tuesday. Do you have any information on Shadrick/Shadrack that you would be willing to share? I research in Anniston, Alabama periodically. The Calhoun County library has good bit of data on Randolph County. Have you been there? Will search for information on both Shadrack and Francis.

Is it possible that your Francis Marion connects to the Russell County, AL. line?

Could you give me a broader picture of your line? You indicated Francis M was born in AL, Did he leave AL., possibly go west? Several Kite famlies such As Caswell, David, and Samuel settled west of the Mississippi.

Hi Melanie,
The KITE family I have are from GA and I have the names of Shadrack (Shadrick) and a Louisa Parmelia. On a trip to GA last year I found a little book "Kite and Kights - Some Memories and Records" by Dorothy Kight Murray. I only copied the pages for my line. Plus I visited the Kite Cemetery in Kite, Johnson Co, GA. Here is what I have:
Shadrack KIGHT b. circa 1784 m. Martha Pamela "Patsy" JEWELL. Their children:
1-Elizabeth b. 3-5-1810 d. 1-2-1897 m. White WHEELER - both buried in Wheeler Cemetery near Kite, GA
* 2-Patty Martha "Patsy" b. 3-10-1811 d. 10-15-1898 m. James MEADOWS - both buried in Kite Cem.
* 3-Polly Ann (Mary Ann) b. 3-15-1815 d. 5-30-1900 m. William B. HALL - both buried Liberty Grove Cem. Johnson Co, GA
4-Shadrack b. 5-20-1818 d. 5-22-1893 m. Millie NORRIS - both buried Kite Cem.
5-Louisa Parmelia b. 8-31-1818 d. 7-1-1901 m. Lloyd PRICE
6-Green (no dates) m. Anna PRICE
7-Henry b. 1823 d. 2-20-1885 m. Exie Matilda BOWEL
8-William "Bill" b. abt 1830 m. Rebecca THOMAS
9-Sallie (no dates) m. William WILLIAMS
* - my lines
Several of these children named their sons Shadrack but no dates were given in the book. The dates don't seem to match up to your information, and I didn't have a Francis Marion listed. I do know that some of the information was incorrect or missing in the book with my lines. There might be a connection somewhere? If I find out anymore information I'll let you know.

I have traced my family back to Shadrick Kight (b:abt 1784) m: Martha Pamela Jewell (b: abt 1783) in abt 1810. She was an 1832 Land Lottery Winner in GA (55th distr. Residents of Emmanuel CO GA by early 1800's)

Both are from SC...or possibly NC. I'm looking for the link to where they came from. Can anyone help me with this?

According to KITE AND KIGHTS, SOME MEMORIES AND RECORDS by Dorothy Kight Murray; Magnolia Press, Swainsboro, GA 1985 they have the following children: Elizaeth (m: While Wheeler), Patsy (m: James Meadows), Polly Ann (m: William B. Hall), Shadrick Jr or II (m:Millie Norries), Lousia Parmelia (m: Loyd Price), David? Green (m:Anna Price), Henry (m: Exie Matilda Rowell), William (m: Rebeccas Thomas), Sallie (m: William Williams)

1790 census shows two Kight/ Kite families. One, Samuel Kight from Pitt Co NC and the other from Newberry County SC

Here is how I am related:
I am daughter b:6 May 1957 of Mattie Lou Kight b:1 Mar 1935;
grand-daughter of James Wesley Kight
b:29 July 1905
ggranddaughter of Henry Lloyd Kight
b: 8 Feb 1882;
gggranddaughter of John Wesley Kight
b: abt 1855
ggggranddaughter of William W. Kight
b: abt 1830
gggggranddaughter of Shadrick Kight
b: abt 1784

Thanks to anyone who cna help.

-> Hi Pat, Are you familiar with William Lunsford, b. ca 1823 in GA.
-> His wife's name was Permelia, b. ca 1823 in GA. They were living in -> Randolph Co., AL in 1850. I am trying to find out if William was
-> perhaps the brother of Cynthia Kite, wife of Marion Francis Kite, or
-> if Permelia Lunsford was perhaps Francis Marion Kite's sister. The -> two families lived next door (or next farm) to each other in 1850 in -> Randolph Co., AL. Any information will be greatly appreciated.
-> Melanie Nolan in Humble, Texas

Yes I have heard of William Lunsford.
At the same time Joseph Lunsford moved from Stewart County, Georgia to Randolph. I believe he may have been either a nephew of Joseph. One hint this family went south to Barbour County, Alabama.

Doyle H. White

OAK GROVE — Services for Doyle H. White, 61, will be at 2 p.m. today at Green Chapel Church of God near Oak Grove with the Rev. William Moden officiating.

Burial will be in New Forest Cemetery near Oak Grove under direction of Cox Funeral Home of Oak Grove.

Mr. White died Monday at his residence after a short illness.

Survivors include two sons, Harry Doyle White and Randy M. White, both of Oak Grove; two brothers, E.H. White of West Monroe and Olney J. White of Baton Rouge; six sisters, Mrs. Bobbie Jean Beatty of Minden, Mrs. Audett Smith of Bastrop, Mrs. Johnnie V. Bennett of Oak Grove, Mrs. Lennie Mae Williams of Nicholson, Miss., Mrs. Edith White of Tallulah, Mrs. Ethel Arender of Pineville; and one grandson.

Pallbearers will be Ben Bennett, Billy Bennett, Jay Strong, Rickey Brister, Leon Armfield, Howard Berg, Glenn Kennedy, and B.E. McIntyre.

sel shells — a food offering — in the grave pit.

She explained that the lime present in the shells counteract with the acid in the soil to preserve bones.

Petticoat Bayou is believed to have once been a channel of the Arkansas River. Today, it's little more than a sluggish stream, but 500 to 700 years ago, it must have been a good source of fresh water, accounting for all the shells, Jones said.

The landowners have known for years that the little apex was where the Indians buried their dead. An old mule had plowed over the mound in recent years; a Northeast Louisiana University archaeology survey team also had traced a prehistoric trail dating back 20,000-40,000 years near the mound.

The site is "numbered" with the state as a known Indian mound, according to Mitchell Hillman, an archaeologist at Poverty Point. But aside from a few arrowheads found by Chris' grandmother 300 yards away, nothing had been unearthed of any significance in or around the vicinity.

Now public can calmly make decision

WASHINGTON – There is a growing conviction among a band of conservatives that American society has embarked upon a speedy expedition to hell. Paul Weyrich expressed the prevailing gloom last week when, sizing up the president's acquittal in the Lewinsky case, he declared that left-wingers had conquered right-wingers in the culture wars and as far as he was concerned, the American people deserved whatever grim fate might await them.

He wasn't alone in his bitterness. One very senior player in the impeachment drama confided to me that he was disturbed less by the verdict than by the fact that he had begun to question the wisdom and decency of the American people. If the polls were right, he said, average folks had given thumbs up to the seedy romance of two cigar aficionados.

To hear many of my brethren tell it, the president's latest escape is to the Constitution and the Ten Commandments what the Alamo was to Davie Crockett. But what they have experienced is not the death of decency so much as the birth of political wisdom.

JOHNNIE VEE BENNETT
Cox Funeral Home
Oak Grove, LA

OAK GROVE, LA - Services for Johnnie Vee Bennett, 76, of Oak Grove, La. will be at 2 p.m. Thursday, October 13, 1994 at Goodwill Church of God with Rev. Thomas Bunting and Rev. Geary Phillips officiating. Burial will be in New Forest Cemetery under the direction of Cox Funeral Home in Oak Grove.

Mrs. Bennett died Wednesday, October 12, 1994 at West Carroll Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Bennett was born on August 11, 1918 in Colfax, LA. She was the third of nine children born to Mr. & Mrs. Harry White. She taught one of the first classes when the school opened in 1939 at Goodwill. She coached the first girls basketball team at Goodwill. Her last year of teaching, she taught Goodwill's first Kindergarten class. As a member of the Eastern Star, she served as Worthy Matron and District Deputy. She was always interested in children and concerned about their education.

Survivors include her daughter and son-in-law: Jo Anne & Glen Kelly of Oak Grove, LA; two grandsons and wives: Perry & Christy Kelly of Oak Grove, LA and Johnny & Tonya Kelly of Oak Grove, LA; great grandchild: Jessica Ann Kelly of Oak Grove, LA; four sisters: Audette Smith of Bastrop, LA, Lennie Mae Williams of Picayune, MS, Edith White of Tallulah, LA, Ethel Chaler of Alexandria, LA; brother: E. H. White of West Monroe, LA.

Pallbearers will be O. E. Smith, Mickey Kelly, Hursel Tyson, John Paul Posey, Douglas Strong, and David Bennett.

With the upcoming retirement of Judge Charles Traylor, we will be called upon to elect a new Judge to the West Monroe City Court this fall.

The West Monroe City Court's jurisdiction extends beyond the city limits and includes Ward 5.

Randy Donald is a candidate for the City Judge position which will be created by the retirement of Judge Traylor.

Randy Donald is a local attorney who resides in West Monroe. He has practiced law since being admitted to the Louisiana Bar Association in 1984.

Randy has the experience necessary to be a good judge. In twelve years of practice, he has handled cases of all types in several different courts, including many in the West Monroe City Court. Randy has represented people from all walks of life, with many different types of legal problems. This experience has given Randy the perspective and maturity required to make tough and impartial decisions.

Randy Donald will be a positive influence as City Judge, especially in the juvenile cases which come before the court. Randy has been involved in helping children as a coach, official, teen court judge and numerous other activities, long before he had children of his own.

Randy has coached Dixie Youth League baseball in West Monroe for a number of years. He has been a high school football official for 19 years and is a member of the Monroe Football Officials Association. Randy is a private pilot and enjoys hunting, fishing and golf.

Randy's ideas - such as requiring children who have gotten into trouble to continue their education as a part of their sentencing and involving parents and families in the juvenile process - can make a major difference in whether a child will continue to be in trouble or whether that child will become a positive and productive citizen.

Randy is a member of the: Louisiana State Bar Association, Fourth District Bar Association, American Bar Association, Delegate to House of Delegates of the Louisiana State Bar Association, New Chapel Hill Baptist Church, NLU Booster Club, Ducks Unlimited and the Wild Turkey Federation.

"I believe that a child, in most cases, wants to follow the correct path and, if properly led and motivated, will become a productive member of society. But should youths choose a violent or destructive course and fail to follow the guidelines set out by the court, I will be as tough on them as necessary. I want this community to be a safe and happy place to raise our families.

Criminals should be put away to the fullest extent of the law, where they can do no harm to law abiding citizens . Law abiding citizens should be given every courtesy and cooperation as they help the court enforce the law.

The City Court should be a court where people can come and find that the law is there to both protect them and help them solve their problems; and by appearing in this court, they find both the protection and solutions they seek."

Emily d. 8-23-1849 in Burke Co., GA probably in childbirth, though the child survived.
Franklin m. 2nd LAURA J. KELLY 10-1856 in Louisville, Jefferson Co., GA.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Robert S. Davis, Jr.'s THE FAMILIES OF BURKE COUNTY (GA) 1755-1855, A CENSUS shows numerous Nasworthy and Nazworthy entries. There is no entry for a Franklin, unless he is GEORGE F. NAZWORTHY, p. 612, (which he isn't - George F. was a 9 year old, the son of Urias and Mary Nasworthy). The book can be purchased for $37.50 postpaid, from the author, Route 2 Box 67, Jasper, GA 30143.
Since Franklin is notably absent in the 1850 census of Burke (a burned county), look for him in Jefferson Co. He married twice there, which suggests that he might have been a resident of Jefferson, not Burke, during his adulthood. That's good, because Jefferson has good records!

BELL - Mr. Veston Newsom, P.O. Box 361, Vernon, FL 32462 seeks descendants of ZACHARIAH BELL and ELIZABETH HALL, who m. 3-31-1803 in Richmond Co., GA. Did Zachariah live in Leon Co., FL in 1830 and Jackson Co., GA in 1840? Men of this name were enumerated there.

Stephen Nolan, Sr. was counted in 1860 in Harrison Co., TX.
JANE VIRGINIA NOLAN, b. 1824 SC, m. ELIAS JONES, and was also in TX in 1860.
STEPHEN NOLAN, JR. b. 1829 SC was also in Harrison Co., TX, and m. CATHRINE GILLIS.
Three of the Nolan sisters m. ELIAS W. JONES: Nancy in 1838, Martha in 1845, and Jane in Sept. 1846.
One son DAVID NOLAN, b. 1824 SC, moved to Union Parish, LA in 1848, where many descendants live.
Stephen, Jr. served in the 19th Cavalry of TX in the C.S.A.

Soon after he was discharged from the army, he and his family left Harrison Co., TX destined for CA. They were never heard from again.
Who were the parents of Stephen, Sr. and what was his wife's name, and her parentage? When and where did they marry?
